Dear Seniors:

I congratulate you upon the completion of your high school career. It is my greatest hope that each of you is prepared to successfully pursue a life of happiness------a life of service to your community, state, and nation.

The government of our country is built upon the philosophy that every individual is of great importance. I challenge you to accept the responsibility that is offered you as a citizen of this country. Your attitude toward this responsibility will influence many of your fellow citizens.

The staff of this school is anxious to continue to be of service to you after your graduation. Please call upon us when we can help you.

Sincerely,

James F. Goolsby

Dedication

To

MRS. E. K. CONLEE

We dedicate the 1954 HOURGLASS, in deepest appreciation for the many things you have done to help us become better students and better individuals. May your life be filled with as much happiness as you have brought to us.

He's a fulltime bum on Seaboard Railroad.
Jimmy Britt gave up his TV show
He's now making pictures for RKO.
Shirley Britts' life is filled with bliss
She's now top announcer on "Can You Top This."
Myrtle Brownlee, our wittiest girl
Has now gone to Nashville to replace Minnie Pearl.
Lawrence Crawford is seldom seen
He's now top brass as a U. S. Marine.
Junior Cash still doesn't have it straight in his head
Which one of those Clarkston girls he is going to wed.
Flora Donald has lots to do
Since she's head coach at Pearidge U.
Ralph Magnes, who we thought was so shy
has turned out to be a real gone guy.
Billie Jane now sings on TV
We see her every Wesnesday with Arthur Godfrey.
Janice Young is now keeping house
For Jerry Baxter who is her spouse.
Peggy Martin started out for a college degree
But she ended up with a little Akin on each knee.
Glenn Fortner has now hit Broadway
His jokes make him more popular every day.
Eugene is now manager of Colonial Store
He won't be carrying out groceries anymore.
Jimmy Craft has a big Texas ranch
But he comes back to Tucker every time he gets a chance.
Jimmy Morris is now football coach at Tech
His boys make other teams look like a wreck.
Ann Matthews is now private secretary
To none other than Mr. Jim Cherry.
Gene Bailey with his brilliant mind
Is now assistant to Mr. Einstein.
Charlcie Hardeman is now very happy
With four little children to call Steffen pappy.
Peggy Jo does nothing but grieve
Seems the Marines won't give her husband, Lawrence a leave.
Elizabeth Graves is a perfect wife
She's got Alfred hooked for life.
Tommy Sullivan is the best salesman in the land
Wilson's Ice Cream has made him top man.
Joyce Goza has now joined the Waves
To keep up with all her sailors these days.
Annette as a singer has gone a long way
She co-stars with Glenn on Broadway.
Eddie Redd swore he's be a bachelor for life
He now has nine kids, and a cute little wife.
Jimmy Sexton is out every night as a rule
He stays down at Two-Point shooting pool.
Charles joined the Navy to see the world
In every port he has a girl.
Ralph Wells wanted to be a baseball man
But it seems Ann had a different plan.
The shy Ray Paden we never see anymore
Since he started working in a lingerie store.
Jane Cown is now on the stage
Her bubble dance is really a rage.
Allen Melton had to quit being a loafer
When he got married to Charlotte Cofer.
The one who is really bringing in cash
Is our Beauty Supply salesman, Jimmy Nash.
Through she has the charm, and she has the looks
She's still an old maid, poor old Murt Brooks.

Last Will and Testament

Georgia, DeKalb County.

We, The Senior Class of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, being fully aware of the uncertainties of being together as a Senior Class, do hereby publish and declare this our last will and testament.

SECTION ONE:

Article I.

To MR. GOOLSBY, A class of seniors that don't know how to lay out of school.

To MR. STROZIER, A class that doesn't always want to take field trips.

To MRS. HUTCHINS, A class that knows what it means when she says "Keep Still."

To MR. BROOKS, A physical education class that will remember their tennis shoes.

To MR. JIM HENDERSON, A government class that gets to class on time.

To MRS. SHAEFER, A class of students that will learn theroms.

To MR. WALTER HENDERSON, The satisfaction of knowing that his drawing class will produce two or three good architects.

TO MISS JONES, A family relations class that will really think seriously about the problems that come with marriage.

To MRS. JORDAN, A senior typing class that doesn't get "all tired out" before the period is over.

To MISS MOORE, Many more seniors on her basketball team--then they're sure to be champions.

To MR. TRIMBLE, Our deepest appreciation for all your help and patience in helping us through it all.

To MR. HANNON, More seniors in his band--nothing could be a success without a few seniors in it.

To MRS. PATRICK, A senior study hall that's not so eager to go to lunch.

To MRS. CAIN, An annual staff that doesn't put things off.

To MRS. CONLEE, Good luck and happiness always from a group of seniors who love you dearly.

Article II.

To THE JUNIORS, All the fun and good times that go with being a senior--May you get as much enjoyment from it as we have.

To THE SOPHOMORES, The ability to have fun and get lots of knowledge at the same time--May you use the ability better than we did.

To THE FRESHMEN, All the fun that high school can give you. You have more to look forward to than any group--enjoy it all.

SECTION TWO:

I, Glenn Fortner, do hereby will my ability to always say the right thing at the wrong time to Buddy Humphries.

I, Flora Donald, do will my love for sports to Charlotte Cofer; sports are a lot of fun, Charlotte.

I, Junior Cash, do enthusiastically will my slick technique with the girls to Kenneth Akin; they'll really love you.

I, Janice Young, do hereby will my ability to get a man and keep him to Freida Parker.

I, Annette Dollar, do regretfully will all the good times that go with being a senior to Marolyn Jones; take full advantage of it.

I, Peggy Dunagan, do hereby will my ability of always being able to think of something to say to Yvonne Chamblee; it comes in handy Yvonne.

I, Jimmy Craft, do hereby will my stately height to Ben Hill.
I, Peggy Martin, do will my big brown eyes to Linda Morgan; keep them open you'll see a lot.
I, Charlcie Hardeman, do hereby will my fondness to Southern Tech men to Loretta Taylor; You'll have lots of fun and lots of trouble.
I, Gene Bailey, do will my wide range of knowledge to Charles Park; use it wisely Charles.
I, Danny B. :t, do hereby will my calm acceptance of life to Kenneth Wellborn.
I, Jimmy Br. :t, do will my handsome features to John Nix; they come in handy with with girls.
I, Shirley Britt, do hereby will my position of head majorette to Mary Goodwin; enjoy it as I have.
I, Mary Brooks, do will my speed in typing to Iva Fean Sorrells; hoping your typewriter doesn't make as many .nistakes as mine did.
I, Myrtle Brownlee, do hereby will my witty sayings to Mary Lou Bannister.
I, Allen Campbell, do will my way with the women to Larry Dunn; keep them guessing Larry.
I, Lawrence Crawford, do hereby will my high position in the Marine Corp to Marion Smith; may you advance as rapidly as I did.
I, Billie Jane Dillard, do will my nickname of "Red" to Annette Barrett; hope you enjoy it more than I have.
I, Joyce Goza, do hereby will my love for government class to Barbara New; may your love for it be stronger than mine.
I, Jane Cown, do hereby will my famous giggle to Barbara Whelchel.
I, Joyce Dishroon, do hereby will my innocent look to Patty Moss.
I, Elizabeth Graves, do will my ability to keep quiet to Shirley Persall; you'll learn a lot that way.
I, Larry Honea, do choose from my many possessions to will my strawberry curls to Roger Stiles.
I, Ralph Magnes, do hereby will my look of distinction to Joe Simmons.
I, Ann Matthews, do hereby will my secretarial ability to Alta Kimball.
I, Howard McClung, do enthusiastically will my habit of going without a belt to Richard Hall.
I, Allen Melton, do will my key to the ice cream store to Harlon Thompson; it gets you out of lots of classes Harlon.
I, Jimmy Morris, do hereby will my love for redheads to Merrill Summerlin.
I, Jimmy Nash, do hereby will my privileges of getting out at lunch to Marvin Bennett.
I, Ray Paden, do hereby will my nickname of "Zeke" to Thomas Singleton.
I, Eddie Redd, do hereby will my love for the girls to Billy Dempsey.
I, Jimmy Sexton, do will my ability to talk as fast as I type to Raymond Goza; hope Mrs. Jordan enjoys your talking more than she did mine.
I, Charles Stowers, do hereby will my good physique to Jack Grice.
I, Tommy Sullivan, do hereby will my businesslike manner to James Pickens; you'll go places with it.
I, Eugene Wells, do will my pleasure in teasing the girls to Gene Wallace; you'll get lots of fun from it.
I, Ralph Wells, do hereby will my desire to become a left-handed pitcher to Bobby Rolader.
